JUST THINK OF IT!
$400 PIANO TO BE GIVEN AWAY!

That advertising is now a science is again demonstrated practically to the buying public of this section by the wonderful advertising system now employed by the most enterprising house of DUHRING'S who are going to give away ABSOLUTELY FREE to some one of their customers on November 8, 1915, the beautiful CLAXTON GRAND PIANO which is now on exhibition at their store.

The CLAXTON sells for FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS and is a HIGH CLASS instrument in every respect, GUARANTEED by the makers for TEN YEARS.

JUST THINK OF IT! A Four Hundred Dollar Piano to be GIVEN AWAY!

A few years ago, if a merchant was to do such a thing, he would be considered a fit subject for an asylum, but conditions have changed. Yet in the face of the enormous sum spent in advertising the fact of DUHRING'S giving away a $400 piano is a stupendous undertaking and it clearly demonstrates their desire to be "always up to and a little ahead" of the spirit of the times.

Every purchaser of goods from any department of their store will receive a coupon representing one vote on the piano for each one cent purchased. The person presenting the largest number of votes to them at the close of the contest will receive the piano absolutely free. No favors will be shown and every person will receive an equal chance.

The reputation enjoyed by DUHRING'S for "square dealing" insures this fact. We think the buying people will appreciate this extremely liberal offer on the part of Duhring's and we predict a lively scramble for votes.

In this connection, and in order to give our friends and patrons who may be interested in the Piano Voting Contest a further incentive, we have arranged with Mr. Duhring that he will accept orders from us on him as follows:

For each new or renewal PAID subscription to the Index-Tribune, three ($3.00) thousand votes.

On all CASH orders of job work, and advertising paid for, the rate of one vote for each cent will be given.

Now, then, here's an offer extraordinary! This is a rare opportunity to secure a fine piano.

SONOMA VALLEY NEWS NOTES

ELKS' FLOAT A WINNER WARM SPRING DISCOVERED ON O'DONNELL PLACE IN GLEN ELLEN HIGH SCHOOLS DEBATE

Reporting the wonderful pageant seen in the City of Roses, last Saturday, at the most magnificent floral display ever exhibited in the county, the Santa Rosa Press Democrat has this to say of the Elks' Float:

"The largest and most pretentious float in the entire parade and one which proved the winner of first prize was the one entered by Santa Rosa Lodge, No. 646, B. P. O. E. It was a massive affair, built with marigolds, wild ferns, hawthorns and from many places hung golden baskets filled with marigolds. There were numerous golden butterflies, and perched on either corner in high seats at the rear were two dainty human golden butterflies, in the persons of Mardie Leppo and Mary Bonar, while Miss Gladys Berry occupied the seat of honor, forming the head and body of an immense golden butterfly in the center of the float. It was a wonderful conception marvelously executed. Mrs. J. P. Berry was the head of the committee which prepared the float. The four magnificent black horses, gaily caparisoned with gold harness, were led by Nubians in full regalia."

The Sonoma Valley friends of Mrs. Berry—who is the daughter of Frank Koenig of the Union—knowing her exceptional artistic ability, feel certain that the award was fully merited.

Walter B. Bundschu, of this city, acted as one of the judges on floats, special features and horseback riders at the Santa Rosa Rose Carnival, last Saturday.

A Joyful Reunion.

Wm. Collins, a member of the popular firm of Collins & Mohr, of the Don Theatre, had the pleasure, Friday of last week, of visiting with his sister, Mrs. Morris Switzer, who, with her husband, is at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco. Mr. Switzer is a leading automobile manufacturer of New York. It had been twenty-seven years since the brother and sister had met—not since the latter was a tiny girl, five years old, in the family home at New Orleans. The reunion was, quite naturally, fraught with the greatest of enjoyment for the brother and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Switzer will visit the exposition and other points of interest in California before returning to New York.

While drilling a well on the George O'Donnell property at Glen Ellen, last week, excitement ran high when it was discovered that the flow of water on reaching the surface was warm—so much so, in fact, as to evidence a great volume of heat at its source. A sample of the water has been taken to San Francisco for analysis, but it is believed to be sulphur—another of the hot mineral springs for which the Valley of the Moon is famed not alone in California but throughout the United States as well.

The George O'Donnell place is less than one-half mile from the very heart of Glen Ellen, and it is not surprising that the residents of our northern neighbor anxiously await the outcome of the analysis of the water.

To Glen Ellen, situated as it is in one of the most beautifully picturesque parts of the county, within easy access to the great Metropolis of the West: with its semi-tropical climate, no enervating heat in summer, the locating of a hot mineral spring in the heart of town would mean a boom, of course, but not of the "mushroom" variety. On the contrary, it would mean that Glen Ellen—a garden spot, rich in scenic grandeur—would become a solid link in the chain of Sonoma Valley health and pleasure resorts.

Right here, perhaps, we think it apropos, while touching upon the subject of resorts to give space to an editorial comment, taken from the columns of last Sunday's (May 9th) Chronicle. It shows a pen-point view of the season's outlook, which we believe to be correctly drawn, and we hope it will prove encouraging to those who fear, since the season is a late one, that it presages unusual quietude. The article is headed, "California's Summer Resorts—An Embarrassment of Riches for Those Who Are Planning the Annual Vacation." Read it, Sonoma Valley resort proprietors—it will prove a fine spring tonic:

"Though it is not yet June, the average man is already beginning to think about his summer vacation, while the average woman is reading the resort advertisements with a view to deciding where it is to be spent. There has always been a wide variety of places in which to enjoy a California holiday, but is only within comparatively recent times that large numbers of these spots have been put in a regular way upon the tourist market. Where one was exploited a few years ago there are now at least twenty, while the total represents an actual embarrassment of riches to the man with a limited vacation.

"No other State in the Union offers such a choice of springs, river, lake, sea, ocean, valley and mountain resorts. Not a summer sport but what is catered for in these various recreation centers.

"That they will be as liberally patronized this year as ever is more than certain. San Franciscans are in love with their exposition, so much so that there are few who have not already seen it many times, yet it is not likely that they will stay in town all the summer for the great festival.

"As for the Eastern, Northern and Southern tourists, there could be no more attractive bait than the widest possible publicity of the fact that in addition to the exposition California is offering the very best of inducements in the way of magnificent scenery to be enjoyed with all the attendant comforts of first-class accommodation in well-appointed establishments.

"The exposition is the trump card, but our summer resorts are the rest of a full pack. Put them all on the publicity table.

ANNUAL BALL AND OPENING AT FETTERS' HOT SPRINGS

Saturday of next week, May 22, takes place the grand ball, which formally opens Feters' Springs for the season of 1915. This big event had been announced to take place tonight, but owing to the unsettled condition of the weather was postponed to the later date.

The event promises to be the most brilliant in the history of the big resort, which, although established but a few years, has become recognized as one of the leading health and pleasure places of the State. Each year Feters' Springs has experienced an increase of patronage, and already this season has opened propitiously, an unusually large number of visitors from all parts having spent week-ends and longer vacations at the beautiful resort.

Delightfully situated, and surrounded by attractive grounds, in a constant state of beautification at the hands of experienced gardeners, Feters' Hot Springs is certainly an ideal vacation place.

However, this is not to be wondered at. In the construction of the hotel, no point was omitted that contributed to the perfectness of arrangement for comfort and convenience. So, too, was this same thought and attention observed in the furnishings of the handsome, spacious hostelry. With the satisfactory accomplishment of these details, consideration was turned to the table—service and appointments. Mrs. Feters personally supervising the culinary department, insuring to her guests unexcelled service and the best edibles the market affords.

To entertain their guests in a satisfying manner became next the paramount desire of Mr. and Mrs. Feters, hence a theatre was built, completely equipped and with a superior dance floor. Throughout the season, a three-piece orchestra furnishes music for dancing, moving pictures are shown every night and splendid vaudeville acts are regular features. The spacious swimming tank (regularly cleaned) also provides no end of healthful amusement.

The management has been highly praised by those who have been guests at the resort, and the determined efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Feters to suppress all hoodlumism is commendable and more than fairly successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Feters extends to everybody a cordial invitation to attend the Annual Ball and Opening, May 22nd, to which no admission will be charged. Everything free—dancing, vaudeville, moving pictures and supper.

Last night (Friday) at Napa, the last of the series of debates to decide the championship of the Napa-Sonoma Counties' League was held at Napa, and if Sonoma wins, the students of our High School will have the honor of holding the cup. We truly hope that victory crowns the efforts of our girls and boys, and are sorry that the hour of our going to press precludes the announcement of the decision.

The question to be debated is, "Resolved, That corporations doing inter-state business should be chartered by the Federal Government."

The Sonoma team comprises Miss Gladys Simmons, Henry Waltz and Emory Ranker. The latter, who is one of the cleverest debaters ever boasted by the Sonoma High, had the rebuttal. His fellow-students anticipated the expounding of winning arguments by this popular Sonoma student.

The Misses Margaret More and Ellen Trueblood, of the High School faculty, have acted as debating coaches in all the debates, and to their excellent judgment and fine training the debating team owes the splendid successes which have been theirs.

Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff accompanied the team to act as judge, in case the University representative representative who was to act in that capacity, could not be in attendance.

Napa High School won from the San Bernardino High School in the interscholastic debate for the championship of the State, at Heart Hall, Berkeley, Thursday evening, by the unanimous decision of five judges from the University. The question discussed was, "Resolved, That the United States Government should own and operate all interstate railroads." The winners were presented with a handsome trophy cup by the University of California.

The Commencement Exercises of the Presentation Convent will be held at Union Hall, Saturday night, June 5th. A fine program is in course of preparation, and friends of the school are looking forward to this big annual event with much pleasure.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF SONOMA CALLED BY DEATH

Tuesday, May 11th, with the breaking of dawn, the spirit of Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert winged its way from its mortal tenement back to paradisaical realms.

Mrs. Gilbert suffered a stroke of paralysis, Friday of last week, from which she never rallied, the end coming peacefully.

Mrs. Gilbert was born in Toronto, Canada, seventy-two years ago. In early life, she left her Canadian home, settling in New York, and while a resident of that State, she was wedded to Ernest Gilbert in 1864. Later the Gilberts moved to San Francisco, from whence they came to the Sonoma Valley, thirty-eight years ago.

To Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert were born nine children—seven sons and two daughters, the latter dying in infancy. Of their sons, George and Joseph M. J., with their father (whose death occurred in Sonoma about five years ago) have joined the silent majority. The other sons—William J., Ernest J., Frank L., Robert J. and Louis A., mourn the loss of their loving and devoted mother. Four of the Messrs. Gilbert live in San Francisco, while William—an invalid, and whose wife tenderly ministered to the deceased prior to her passing—made his home with his mother.

During the many years of her residence in this valley, Mrs. Gilbert won the highest regard of all who came within her influence. Hers was a warm, generous nature, and the many kindly, charitable acts recorded to her credit planted seeds of remembrance that for all time will live in the hearts of all the intimate associates of the gentle woman.

The funeral was held Thursday at 10:30 A. M., from the St. Francis Catholic Church, the remains being laid to rest in Mountain Cemetery, beside the beloved dead sleeping in God's Acre.

Attend Rebekah Assembly

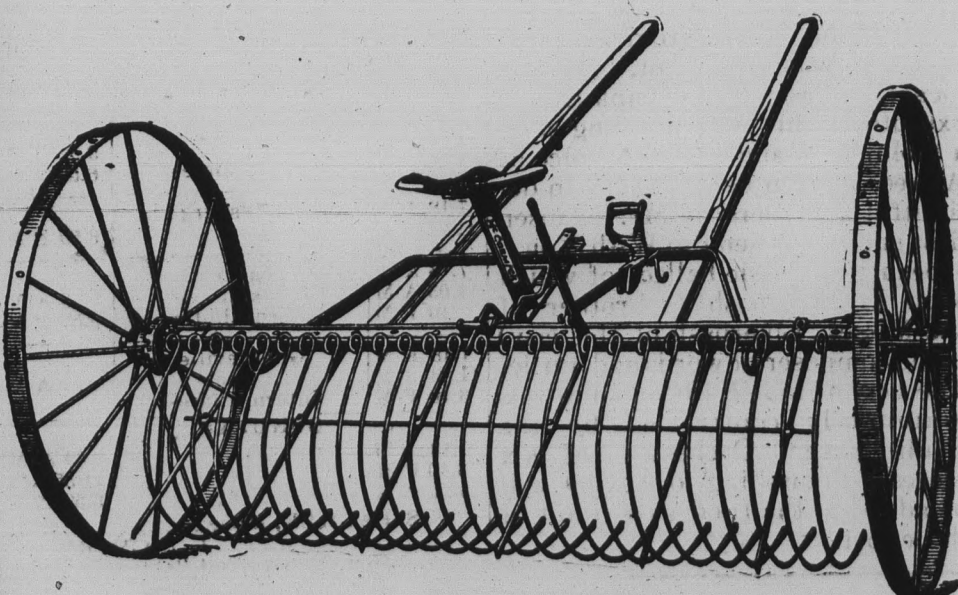

Mrs. J. D. Wagoner spent this week in attendance at the Rebekah Assembly, which convened in San Francisco. Mrs. Ruth McQuiddy Bean was the delegate from Verdant Rebekah Lodge of Sonoma. Both ladies are zealous members of the order.

Some "Twenty Years Ago" In Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF MAY 18, 1895.)

The beautiful new residence of F. Lemoine, situated north of Glen Ellen, is about completed.

Wm. Seipp was a passenger on Monday evening's train coming from the metropolis.

The dedication services of the new Congregational Church at Glen Ellen has been set for June 9th.

Misses Bertie and Gabriel Aguilon were pleasantly entertained by San Francisco friends one day this week.

The farm of A. V. La Motte, near Glen Ellen, under the careful management of M. E. Bones, is looking splendid.

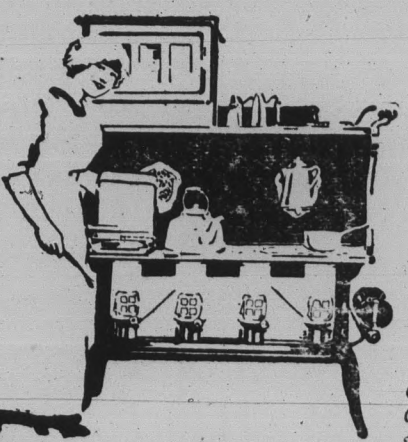

Printer's Ink speaks words of wisdom when it says: What you say about your goods to the man that comes into your store, if said in the local newspaper will make more men come to buy.

The Agua Rica Hot Springs Company will be incorporated next week. The object of the company will be to utilize the remarkable flow of hot mineral water on Capt. Boyes' place for bathing and medicinal purposes. A large building and numerous cottages of Moorish design will be erected and all the appliances of a modern sanitarium will be introduced. It is the intention of the incorporators to make the Agua Rica Hot Springs one of the leading health and summer resorts of California. In addition to the flowing artesian well of hot mineral water, there are thirteen springs on the place of different degrees of temperature.

The half-mile bicycle race, which took place last Sunday between Frank Weems, Robt. Pash, Ed Long and Adam Adler was won by Weems, notwithstanding the fact that the two latter were given a start of about two hundred feet, while the two former started even.

The Plaza, under the supervision of Trustee J. E. Poppe, has been plowed and rolled and with the healthy look of the five and six year-old evergreen trees and shrubs presents an attractive appearance. It is the intention of Trustee Poppe to further beautify the Plaza grounds by introducing more lawns, laying out several lawns in blue grass and planting roses and other flowers. This can be done with very little expense to the city and will add much to the attractiveness of the town.

The entertainment and hop given by the Young Men's Institute of this place last Wednesday evening was one of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the season and reflected great credit on the members of Sonoma Valley Council. The following were the numbers on the programme: Overture, Parks' Orchestra; vocal solo, Miss Claire Hope; recitation, Miss Clara Cheney; instrumental duet, Mrs. Walliser and Miss Bertie Aguilon; comic song, Jas. B. Small; oration, F. J. Kierce; selection, Parks' Orchestra; recitation, Miss Annie O'Donnell; vocal duet, Mrs. Angell and Arthur Banks; recitation, Miss Katie McDonnell; comic song, J. C. O'Donnell.

Mrs. Geo. Rodenborn, of the Guyot place, gave birth to a daughter May 13th, 1915. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

GOOD AUTO SERVICE

The service of the Sonoma County Auto-Bus system has never proved itself so valuable as during Carnival season. The number of people carried from Healdsburg and Cloverdale was three hundred and sixty-one, and from Napa and Sonoma one hundred and seventy-eight. During this time the Auto-Bus system also showed another point, viz: that it kept its schedule time. While loaded to utmost capacity, nevertheless every car came in on schedule time and left on schedule time. In fact, frequently weeks pass without a car failing to leave on schedule time.

Contract for the street paving was, last Monday night, awarded by the City Trustees of Healdsburg to the City Street Improvement Company, of San Francisco, at eighteen cents per square foot.

NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

The public is cordially invited to attend the Peace Day Exercises to be held by the students at the High School, Tuesday, May 18th.

Thursday afternoon, May 20th, the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will be entertained by Mrs. Koeboom, of Schellville, to which she invites all her friends.

Joseph Driscoll, an enterprising young marine engineer of San Francisco, who has been ill for the past two months, is convalescing at "The Oaks"—Mrs. M. Farrell's popular resort at Boyes' Springs.

At the present writing, weather conditions are favorable and a spirited game of ball will no doubt be played tomorrow. The Petaluma Crystals, with their band (accordion and drum), will come here to play Sonoma for the second time this season.

At the Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. Edwin F. Brown, will preach Sunday morning on "The Conies." At 7 p. m., the Epworth League will hold its anniversary exercises, to which the public is cordially invited. Union services at the Congregational Church at 8 p. m.

John P. Serres completed the work of grading the new thoroughfares—Fourth Street East and Walnut Avenue—on Picetti Terrace, and the first of this week the streets were inspected and accepted by the Board of Trustees, and the work of Mr. Sears very highly commended.

Mrs. Wm. Dasmann, of San Francisco, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Irving C. Gobar. Mrs. Dasmann accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Gobar and Master Irving to the Santa Rosa Rose Carnival, last week, where they were made welcome visitors by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noonan.

At the morning services tomorrow (Sunday), at Trinity Episcopal Church, the rector, Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, will discuss Americanism, patriotism, peace, and other salient points advanced in the speech delivered by President Woodrow Wilson at Philadelphia last week. In the evening, Rev. Oehlhoff will read Donald Lawrie's heart-stirring story, "Tom Brown's Knitting Class." The inspiration of this story was from scenes in Sing Sing prison. The public is cordially invited to attend both services.

The committee of arrangements in charge of the big picnic to be given by Sonoma Stamm, No. 293, United Order Redmen, Sunday, May 23rd, at Oak Grove, is to take place—not as our esteemed contemporary states, "providing the weather permits"—whether it rains or shines. Redmen have cultivated the "water habit." The Sonoma Valley Band has been engaged for the occasion, and extensive preparations are under way which will insure the success of the undertaking, and make it one of the most enjoyable fetes ever given in the valley.

The many Sonoma Valley friends of Chas. Cheney, son of Ex-Postmaster James M. Cheney, are more than glad to have the opportunity to extend congratulations to this former popular Sonoma boy on his election as mayor of Sparks, Nevada, after a hotly contested campaign. Mr. Cheney won out over three other candidates, his total vote being 395, while the combined vote cast for the other three candidates was 331. Commenting on the election, the Sparks Tribune splendidly endorses the new mayor as follows: "The new mayor stands for a clean, progressive city that will afford opportunities to all; for a progressive administration, proceeding along the lines of the best interests of the City of Sparks and its people."

Union Hall was thronged with an appreciative audience at the Benefit Entertainment for the Black Point Cut-Off, Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Landers Stevens thrilled their auditors with the gripping playlet, "My Friend." The splendid dramatic abilities of this talented couple are seen and heard to advantage in the tragic composition. The program in its entirety was excellent, favorite local talent assisting. Frank Knolle executed in his usual pleasing style a violin solo, and the fine voice of Alfred Jansen being heard in delightful numbers. Mr. Jansen first sang, "When I'm With You," a beautiful classic ballad, of which Will L. Livernash (a brother of the Misses Livernash of this city) is the composer of words and music. The best of music for dancing was gratuitously contributed by the Pauli-Hansen Orchestra of six pieces. Something over $80 will be added to the fund as a result of the effort.

This afternoon (Saturday), the Goofs and Jazumps will battle for the fifth time this season. These two teams of Boyes' Springs and neighborhood play today on the Boyes' diamond. The games now stand two and two, and a victory for either side means a big dinner for each team at the expense of the non-victorious.

"All things come to one who patiently waits," said Road Overseer Charles Potter, when Wednesday morning's freight deposited the oil sprayer for which an order was recently placed by Supervisor Harry Weise for use in Mr. Potter's district. The big machine will be tried out on Broadway within the fortnight.

Commencing tomorrow, Sunday, May 16th, the summer schedule time for the leaving and arrival of trains on the Northwestern Pacific Railroad goes into effect. The train now leaves in the morning at 7:18. For other changes, read the time table on this page.

Miss Isabel Trudgen will take her departure, the latter part of this month for North Bend, Oregon, where she will pay an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Ralph Winston (nee Beth Trudgen). Last week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Trudgen entertained their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maple of Colton. The gentleman is the chief of police of the Southern California city.

Will Craig and Don J. Guy, of Glen Ellen, have formed a co-partnership and engaged in the contracting and building business, with a carpenter shop in connection. Both gentlemen are skilled artisans, and, moreover, are well and favorably known in the Glen Ellen district. They are deserving of liberal patronage, and will give competent service in their line.

Dr. Joseph M. Arburua, late of Los Banos, and a graduate of the San Francisco Veterinary College, has located in Sonoma to engage in the practice of his profession. Dr. Arburua is a young man and comes well recommended as to character and skill and we hope those in need of the services of a veterinarian will remember this and call on Dr. Arburua, whose office is with O. R. Wagner.

NOTES BY CORRESPONDENTS

AGUA CALIENTE

Reported by Archibald McKiver

A. Marucci transacted business in the Exposition City, Thursday.

Real Estate Man Thos. Baines, accompanied by Chas. Danieli, of El Verano, was here Tuesday on business.

Roadmaster J. P. Serres has commenced grading the road along the line to Fetters' Springs, which, when finished, will make an ideal run for auto tourists.

Ren Weaver, well-known El Verano contractor, with a crew of carpenters, is busy this week making many needed repairs around the new Caliente Villa.

Work is being rushed on the Agua Caliente Springs theatre and dance hall, which when completed will be the largest in the valley and a big thing for these parts.

Fred J. Hansen, popular poultryman of Sonoma, accompanied by Jewel Johnson of San Francisco, was here one day last week renewing old acquaintanceship.

Fred W. Hovey, manager of the Dew Drop Inn cafe at Sonoma, was here, Thursday, shaking hands with his many friends. Fred is popular this way and all were glad to see him.

Although the weather was bad, last Saturday evening, a large audience turned out to the Entertainment and Dance for the benefit of our local school. The affair proved very enjoyable.

"Archie McKiver," Index Tribune reporter, accompanied by Sam Ingberman, manager of the new Caliente Villa, Ernest Hill and several others boarded the colossus Santa Rosa jitney, Saturday evening last, and took in the Rose Carnival.

H. Strum, the new lessee of Agua Caliente Villa, formerly the Heidelberg, has just received a large electric piano, and also one of the latest and most up-to-date graphophones. Work will commence immediately on the new dance hall, and the initial dance will take place in the near future.

The writer is in quest of an assistant. "Easy Jim" promised to send one of his fair ones from Vineburg, and we hope she will be "Belle Brandon," who so ably assisted Archie in his newspaper campaign at El Verano several months ago. Hurry, "Easy," as the game of writing is hard, after such a long rest.

Agua Caliente has many "frecks of nature." Cohen, the grocer, has a horse that will shake hands, while H. Strum has a parrot that reads the local news in the Index, and has your correspondent running all around the town, as he has already been calling "Archie McKiver," when a piece of news is in sight. The polly will act as my assistant during the summer, and he promises some good, live news. The bird was recently brought from South Africa.

Buck Carpenter, the Baxterville horseman, was here Monday trying to sell a "boss," but failed. Truck mules have had a number of these beasts staked near by, as within an hour he brought in three nags to show the purchaser. He drove one, lead another, and on horseback came with the third. It was a hard afternoon for Buck, but he showed that he was game, and went away smiling and showing his teeth when the buyer said that he would not take the last for a gift.

VINEBURG

Dear Easy Jim: The first spring meeting of the Five O'clock Tea Club was held at the club rooms, on Wednesday last, all members being present and Olivia Oliver presiding.

A communication was received from a number of young society men of North Vineburg, who wish to form a social and outing club for the social benefit of the exclusive set the coming summer. The message stated that the gentlemen were unable to find a suitable name for the organization, and requested the ladies of the Tea Club to assist them in selecting a name.

Minnie Madden thought the name should be, "The Poison Oak Club," as poison oak is very fond of the beautiful complexions of fair young society buds who like outings. Belle Brandon suggested the name of the "Lonesome Pine Club," as there would be many lonesome hearts pining after every outing. Tillie Tarralton stated that the name used should be "The Cooper Bridge Club," as all the vehicles used for the outings were gravel beds. Nothing definite was done, the matter being placed in the hands of the committee on social advancement.

Yours as ever, FANNIE FERDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. John Batto are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Figo in San Francisco this week.

Mashal Enrico Forni, who injured his arm some time ago, will soon be able to resume his official duties, and for all the time he was not on duty, he will donate his salary to the poor.

A. L. Wells, the well-known Sonoma painter and decorator, was in Vineburg, Saturday last, putting a few artistic touches on some signs. Besides being a skilled painter, Mr. Wells is also somewhat of a dramatic star, and a good one, too.

Judge J. Lester Small and Theo. Keiser were Sonoma visitors in this vicinity, one day last week. "Fitz" was booming up the Black Point Cut-off Show, but Minnie Madden says the Judge was hunting mushrooms to make "Banana Specials" with.

Chester Studley, one of our rising young orchardists of Buena Vista, left on Sunday to spend a two week's visit with his brother, near Lake View, Oregon. Enjoy yourself, "Ches," and return home safe, for there are faithful hearts that will miss you, while you are gone.

On Saturday, May 8th, there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coletti Andrieux, on the Silva Farm, near Vineburg, a fine young native son to brighten the home and gladden the hearts of the happy parents. Mother and child are getting along nicely, and Vineburg can now boast of another native son.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Minidew and daughter, Miss Pearl, and Mr. and Mrs. William Linz and son Leslie were guests of Howard Brown at New Vineburg Inn, Sunday last. Mrs. Minidew is Mr. Brown's sister. The gentlemen are prominent business men of the metropolis, and later on will visit the burg with their families.

Gathered in and Around El Verano

[SPECIAL BY LEASED WIRE, THE SHORTEST IN THE WORLD.]

Tony Boccia was visiting in El Verano, Wednesday.

Louis Labre and Claud Kirkmann are moving Block's Lumber Yard office to Mr. Labre's property, he being the successful bidder on the building.

On account of the rain, the two El Verano baseball teams did not play ball as scheduled last Sunday. Weather permitting, the game will be called Sunday, May 16, at 2 P. M., at the Bellevue Hotel diamond. The admission to the game will be free.

Sargeant Al Johnson, of Fetters', was in town last Friday, shaking hands with some of his old comrades. The "old vet" has seen some good service, and says that if he is needed, he will take down the old fowling piece from the attic and again join the ranks, as every good patriot should.

The many friends of Mrs. Water Poulson are glad to note her convalescence. Mrs. Poulson has suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever, for many weeks lying in a precarious condition at the Broadway Sanitarium. This esteemed young matron was brought to her home in El Verano, last Saturday.

Mr. Newbauer, a prominent business man of San Francisco, is registered at the French Cottage. Mr. Newbauer has left his apartments at the Hotel Tallac in the metropolis and expects to spend several months here at the Cottage, where he has been a welcome guest for several summers.

Dan Singleton, of the metropolis, is visiting in El Verano.

And erstwhile Harry Lubbock, caterer and now clever sleuth, and Burns—detective, noted in many climes: Harry, who pleased in his "La Boheme" on the highway the tired and the weary and the pleasure-goer. Harry, a Bon Vivant.

The many acquaintances of Jas. Moore, the efficient and well-known conductor, who has had charge of the local run of the Southern Pacific passenger, was grieved to learn of his sudden passing at Santa Rosa, last Friday. Mr. Moore was well and favorably known in his capacity as a conductor throughout the State.

A swell banquet was held at the Helvetia Hotel, last Sunday evening by the two El Verano baseball teams, and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. A neat speech was made by Johnnie Basilen, in behalf of his Pool Sharks, while Louis Kearney brought down the house in behalf of the Lumber Jack B. B. C., of which he is manager. That old-time song, "C-h-i-c-k-e-n Spills Chicken," was sung and very greatly enjoyed, as was also the menu by the gathering.

SAL SALARATUS.

SHELLVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tholka and three children came up from San Francisco, Sunday, to visit the lady's brother, Fred Helberg, Sr.

Earl Revie, of El Verano, went to Embarcadero, Sunday last, to spend the day with his mother, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Gilfoyle.

Miss Emma Merriam and friend, Miss Jessie Coggle, of Oakland, returned home, Sunday, after a pleasant visit of a week with friends here.

The farmers can't do much this kind of weather. Their greatest worry is to keep their tobacco dry in order to have a long, sweet smoke.

A jolly time took place, Wednesday, at Locust Grove, the picturesque home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landsborough, when Miss Anna Mossitt, of Los Angeles, who is visiting at the Bigelow home, was the honor guest at a "Five Hundred and Five Party." All who accepted the hospitality of our greatly esteemed matron and delightful hostess, Mrs. Landsborough, voted the afternoon a perfect social success. Those present were: Mesdames Henry Bates, Thomson, McMullin, Wagner, G. H. Hotz, Bigelow, Dubring, Shaw, Erskine and Burlingame; Misses Kenyon and Mable Hays.
